

Application for Transportation to Private/Parochial or Charter Schools

Complete the application for transportation below and return to the Gates Chili Transportation Department via email at businformation@gateschili.org or by mail at 4 Spartan Way, Rochester, NY 14624.

SECTION 1: TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Per New York State Education Department regulations, applications for transportation must be submitted to the Board of Education by Gates Chili residents no later than April 1 of the year for which transportation is needed in September. Applications from residents who are new to the district must be submitted no later than Aug. 1.
- Transportation to and from locations other than the student's legal residence (i.e., babysitter or daycare center) must be located within the school boundaries of the school attended by the student. Per Board of Education policy, written requests for such service must be submitted annually with the Gates Chili Transportation Department by July 1 preceding each school year. Pick-up and drop-off locations are required to be the same all five days of the week.
- Transportation will not be provided to private/parochial and charter schools when GCCSD is not in session. Early dismissals for private/parochial and charter schools will be limited to the same number of early dismissals as noted on the Gates Chili district calendar.
